SUMMER 2019
Sponsorship Pack

AN INTRODUCTION TO EXCHANGE

Aspex is delighted to present their 2019 Summer project, Exchange.

The project will commission three artists to generate new artwork in response to the theme of 'exchange' and all of its potential meanings and readings.

Working with the artists, project partners and participants we will explore the exchange of skills, knowledge and experiences; ownership and the trading of items, as well as currency and value.

Exchange will also invite the people of Portsmouth and visitors to the city to take part in over one-hundred creative workshops, exhibitions and events - working alongside the commissioned artists and University of Portsmouth's student ambassadors.

Events and activities will take place at the gallery in Gunwharf Quays, alongside locations throughout the city, such as The Hotwalls Studio in Old Portsmouth, Swanmore College's SwanFest and Victorious Festival on Southsea Common - to name just a few.

These activities will inform the development of the commissioned artworks, created through a series of artist residencies at Aspex. The artworks will be presented throughout the city, as well as at the gallery in August/September 2019.

Aspex will be working with project partners The Maker's Guild, Strong Island Co. and the University of Portsmouth's Faculty of the Creative and Cultural Industries.

ABOUT ASPEX

Aspex is a unique contemporary art gallery located in Gunwharf Quays, Portsmouth. Our mission is to support emerging artists and reveal the creative process.

We connect people with artists, creating opportunities to experience contemporary visual art in a broad variety of ways; from looking and discussing, to making and curating.

The organisation has a reputation for supporting emerging artists at key stages in their career development, providing opportunities to make a step change in their practice. These include many who are now international art stars, for example: Helen Chadwick, Cornelia Parker, Richard Wilson and Catherine Yass to name but a few.

We also seek to reveal the creative process to audiences, connecting them to artists and enabling them to explore their own creativity. This is achieved through provision of a lively participation and learning programme that is recognised by the arts industry as one of the best in the country. This enables us to work with over 5,500 people per year, delivering activities for a broad range of ages and user groups including families, schools, children with Special Educational Needs and people with dementia.
