	The exhibition has been made by Aspex Portsmouth. We are an arts charity which means we help artists to make work and share it.

Meet the Artist - Rakibul Chowdhury

This is an artist called Rakibul Chowdhury.

Rakibul likes to draw pictures of his favourite musicians, film and television characters, and celebrities.

He uses bright colours and adds lots of detail to create images of groups of people.

He has shown his artwork at exhibitions in London and Paris.

Meet the Artist - Eileen Cooper RA

This is an artist called Eileen Cooper.

Eileen uses paint and print-making to make pictures of people. She focuses on creating human figures.

Her paintings include families and friends. She likes to explore the close connection we have to others.

During the 1980's, Eileen became a very popular artist. She has taught in many well known art schools including Central Saint Martins and the Royal College of Art.

Meet the Artist - Alice Hayes

This is a painting by an artist called Alice Hayes.

Alice shares her love for people, popular culture and celebrities through colourful paintings. Through her art, she likes to imagine these people doing things out of the ordinary.

Alice's work is a response to how she is feeling. She likes to pour all of her emotions into her paintings.

Meet the Artist - Uduehi Imienwanrin

This is an artist called Uduehi Imienwanrin.

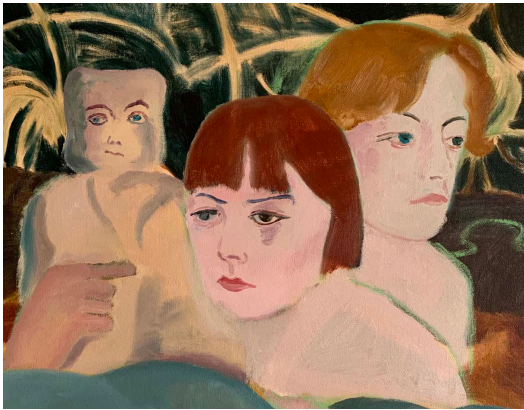

Uduehi paints, draws and uses mark making to create textured drawings, paintings and prints.

His portraits are based on footballers, television and film characters, and musicians.

Meet the Artist - Janet Sainsbury

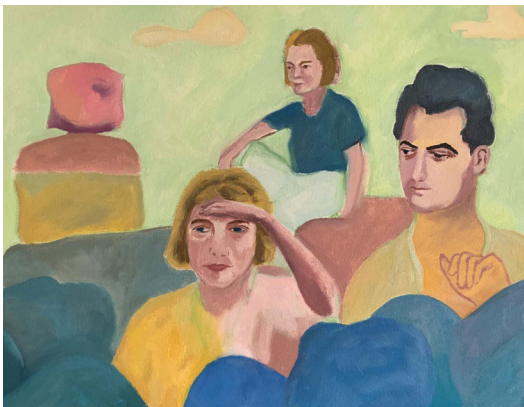

This is painting by an artist called Janet Sainsbury.

Janet paints imaginary places and landscapes.

Her paintings include people from art history and popular culture.

The groups of people featured in her paintings create and act out different stories.
